GSB News 2.9.2021

Dear members of the GSB,

after two postponements, the ALUMINIUM trade fair finally had to be cancelled.

Therefore, the ALUMINIUM BUSINESS SUMMIT will now be held, the most important meeting place of the year for the entire aluminum industry.

With the new format, ALUMINIUM, Aluminium Deutschland (until September 2021: GDA) and the CRU Group are pulling together to help the industry constructively tackle the biggest challenges: the future of mobility, digitalization, sustainability and the future rules of the international market. The two-day hybrid congress format brings experts together live and digitally for an exchange of ideas and, in addition to market insights, finally creates a setting again for a long-awaited personal reunion.
