Dear members of the GSB,

it is always a very special pleasure for us when member companies celebrate anniversaries.

Today, you can find out how e. Luterbach AG advanced to become a leading player in the field of powder coating and spray painting plant construction, and what is planned for the future.

Your GSB Team

40 Years e. Luterbach AG

The e. Luterbach AG from Hildisrieden is known far beyond the Swiss borders as a manufacturer of powder coating and spray painting plants. This year, the company celebrates its 40th anniversary and continues to work enthusiastically on customized solutions for its customers. In addition, a new website is being launched just in time for the anniversary.

The former one man operation now employs 40 people at its headquarters and is the parent company of three other innovative companies. These are SFB AG, which is dedicated to manufacturing powder coating plants for microparts, LutKos Engineering Sh.P.K. in Kosovo, which is active in project management, and Zimmermann Technik AG in Lucerne, which is involved in switchgear construction.

Over the past 40 years, e. Luterbach AG has evolved and changed considerably, always focusing on innovation and added value for customers since 1981. Due to the constant progress, the plants are among the most economical in the whole industry. Since the introduction of PinCH analysis, the plants have become even more efficient and entire operating sites have been integrated into the optimization process. This makes e. Luterbach AG unique. Also digitalization is a big and important topic in plant engineering, for which e. Luterbach AG offers unique solutions. With intelligent algorithms and the own dedicated SmartMES, the plants respectively processes become even more efficient and merge with the customer ERP as well as the other processes. This leads to a clear added value for the customer.

For the future, e. Luterbach AG has set itself the goal of further expanding its position in Europe and continuing to focus more strongly on the areas of automation and digitalization.

True to its motto "Perfection as a vision - the best as a goal", e. Luterbach AG will continue to strive to be a reliable and innovative partner in the coming decades.
